World Communion Sunday

This tradition, always held on the first Sunday in October, was originally conceived by Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr of Shadyside Presbyterian Church (USA) in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1933. He had served as a moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. The U.S. Presbyterian Church adopted World Communion Sunday in 1936, then in 1940, the National Council of Churches endorsed it and promoted it to churches globally.

Since that time, the practice has grown and expanded beyond denominational lines, emphasizing ecumenical partnership and unity throughout the Christian tradition. World Communion Sunday is a celebratory Sunday that invites us to think beyond the walls of our own congregation. On this day, people around the world celebrate Communion as an act of radical unity. While we gather at our own Table to celebrate Christ's joyful feast, we will also remember, with fondness, our siblings in faith celebrating this same meal around the world.

LITURGICAL ART

First Presbyterian Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together as Christians. We are currently in the season of Pentecost or Ordinary Time, which lasts from Trinity Sunday to the First Sunday of Advent. The color GREEN symbolizes the renewal of living things and the promise of new life and growth for the Church. The DOSSAL CURTAIN, behind the Cross, and the paraments on the pulpit and lectern visually depict a saying of Jesus: "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living waters" -John 7:30. It also reminds us of the words "Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream" -Amos 5:24. The TREE OF LIFE, on either side of the Chancel depicts Revelation 22:2 "On either side of the river was the tree of life, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." The vision of artist Don Beck remains a formative influence on the worship life of First Presbyterian Church.

Honoring our heritage, we are a dynamic body welcoming all to Christ's spacious table, illumined to serve God with imagination and love.

GATHERING

We gather as a community and prepare our hearts to worship God.

At the sound of the bells, please prepare your hearts and minds for worship.

Tolling of the Bells

Prelude

Let Us Break Bread Together

arr. Charles Callahan

Today's Introit is a favorite among children in Zimbabwe, and is frequently a processional song for worship beginning with the choir singing "calling" people to worship. Soon all are singing.

Congregation Introit

Come, All You People

UYAI MOSE

Come all you people, come and praise your Maker; (3X) come now and worship the Lord.

*Call to Worship

If you are hungry,
there is room at God's table.
If you are weary,
there is a seat saved for you.
If you dream of belonging,
then we will practice belonging here.
From north, south, east, and west,
God invites us home.
Let us worship our nourishing God.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Creator God,
We hear your invitation to love our neighbors as ourselves,
to live like we belong to one another.
And yet, what is out of sight is often out of mind.
Forgive us for training our hearts to focus only on what is in front of us.
Forgive us for ignoring the tie that binds us to all of creation.
Forgive us for assuming that you being with us means you can't be with others too.
Our gaze has been too narrow.
Open our hearts.
Expand our understanding.
Help us to celebrate the many places you are present in this world.

(Silent Confession)

In your name we pray. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Passing of the Peace

Peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
And also with you.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Prayer for Illumination

First Lesson

Psalm 111

Praise the Lord!

- 1 I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.
- 2 Great are the works of the Lord,
studied by all who delight in them.
- 3 Full of honor and majesty is his work,
and his righteousness endures forever.
- 4 He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds;
the Lord is gracious and merciful.
- 5 He provides food for those who fear him;

he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works,
in giving them the heritage of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy.

8 They are established forever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is his name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
His praise endures forever. Amen.

Scripture Anthem

In Remembrance

Buryl Red

In remembrance of me, eat this bread. In remembrance of me, drink this wine. In remembrance of me, pray for the time when God's own will is done. In remembrance of me, heal the sick. In remembrance of me, feed the poor. In remembrance of me, open the door and let your neighbors in, let them in. Take, eat, and be comforted; drink, and remember too, that this is my body and precious blood shed for you. In remembrance of me, search for truth. In remembrance of me, always love. In remembrance of me, don't look above, but in your heart for God. Do this in remembrance of me.

Second Lesson

Jeremiah 29: 1-14

¹These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²This was after King Jeconiah and the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the artisans, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem. ³The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiyah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. It said: ⁴Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. ⁷But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. ⁸For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to your dreams that you dream, ⁹for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the Lord.

¹⁰For thus says the Lord: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place. ¹¹For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. ¹²Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. ¹³When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart, ¹⁴ I will let you find me, says the Lord, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the Lord, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts!
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise...

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Communion Hymn #508 Come to the Table COME TO THE TABLE

All are welcome at Christ's table. Please receive the sacrament via the center aisle and return to your seat via the side aisle. The bread is gluten-free and the cup is juice so all may partake.

Prayer After Communion

So as we prepare to leave this place,
may we go with the memories of this holy meal clinging to us.
May we remember what it felt like to be welcomed to your Table,
and may we welcome others with that same warmth.
May we remember what it felt like to have a meal where all were fed, and may we work for a world where none are hungry.
May we remember what it felt like to draw closer to you,
and may we continually seek you out with all that we do.
In your name we pray. Amen.

HYMNS FOR WORSHIP

Opening Hymn #340

This Is My Song

FINLANDIA

1 This is my song, O God of all the na - tions,
 2 My coun - try's skies are blu - er than the o - cean,
 3 This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's king - doms:

a song of peace for lands a - far and mine.
 and sun - light beams on clo - ver - leaf and pine.
 thy king - dom come; on earth thy will be done.

This is my home, the coun - try where my heart is;
 But oth - er lands have sun - light too, and clo - ver,
 Let Christ be lift - ed up till all shall serve him,

here are my hopes, my dreams, my ho - ly shrine;
 and skies are ev - ery - where as blue as mine.
 and hearts u - nit - ed learn to live as one.

The first two stanzas of this hymn were written between the 20th century's two world wars and focus on the theme of international peace. The third stanza, by another author and added later, uses the language of the Lord's Prayer to voice a distinctly Christian perspective.

Indicating up glide (↗) and down glide (↘), typical of Bunun singing style.*

For the rice-based peoples of Asia, Jesus' self-disclosure as the Bread of Life (John 6:35, 51) does not relate to daily experience as it does in Western societies. This hymn seeks to bridge that gap and to alert us to such assumptions. The tune name is Taiwanese for "rice-food."

*Stanza 1 may be sung by a leader.

This Korean text accomplishes a rare feat in a Lord's Supper hymn by dealing with the full range of Christ's life from the Nativity to the Resurrection. The first and third stanzas are in the voice of the congregation, while the middle stanza recalls Christ's words of institution.

1 We wait the peace-ful king-dom, when wolf and lamb shall lie
 2 Where is the peace-ful king-dom? When will this new day start?
 3 When wars of des-o-la-tion and hate come to an end,
 4 That lit-tle child shall lead us to walk the cho-sen way,

in gen-tle-ness and friend-ship with-out a fear or sigh,
 We long for peace and com-fort to reign with-in each heart.
 when na-tion meets with na-tion and calls the oth-er "friend," to share the peace-ful king-dom, to greet God's new-born day.

when li-on shall be graz-ing, when snake shall nev-er strike;
 Yet not in our lives on-ly, nor sim-ply in our home:
 still peace in all its full-ness will on-ly have be-gun:
 The child born in a sta-ble is sent to break our chains,

a lit-tle child shall lead us both strong and weak a-like.
 we pray that all cre-a-tion will one day find sha-lom.
sha-lom for all cre-a-tion be-gins with jus-tice done.
 to bring through word and ta-ble the day when jus-tice reigns.

This text paraphrases Isaiah 11:6–9 in the first stanza, then reflects on that passage in widening frames of reference from self to all creation and identifies its "little child" with one born at Bethlehem. The tune is named for the composer's sister, his first piano teacher.

TODAY

Fellowship

We have coffee, snacks, and conversations starting at 9:30 a.m. and again following worship every Sunday under the portico (weather permitting) or in the Parlor.

World Communion Sunday

10:00 a.m., Sanctuary

We celebrate World Communion Sunday where our table is not just at FPC but gathered across the world celebrating holy communion.

Peace & Global Witness Offering

One of four special offerings, we hear the call to peace and peacemaking. 25% of this offering stays with us for our local peacemaking efforts. You can use the envelope in the pew or scan the QR code to give. Learn more at specialofferings.pcusa.org/offering/peace-global-witness.

Following Worship

Re-Dedication of the Peace Pole

Join us for a brief liturgy after worship around our new peace pole just outside the main entrance. Let us remember those who have inspired us towards peace and be encouraged to make our own paths of peace. The pole was given in memory of Rev. Peggy Wood, associate pastor at FPC.

Children and Youth are invited to attend Motion & Movement following worship in the Choir Room. Today, we will go on a scavenger hunt!

Adult Faith Formation: Do Unto Others Campaign and other musings about how to make a difference

Join Pastor Jessie in Fellowship Hall following worship for thoughtful conversation.

NEXT SUNDAY

Meeting of the Corporation

Sunday, October 13, following worship, Sanctuary

There will be a brief meeting of the FPC Corporation to elect three Trustees nominated by the congregational nominating committee to fill unexpired terms: Jeff Bury, Matt Croy and Nancy Wilczynski.

Darrel the Barrel

This month: Cream Soups: Mushroom, Chicken, Celery

City Mission asks for donations for specific items each month to help feed, house, and care for the unhoused in our community. As we go deeper into partnership with them, particularly Martha's Home, filling Darrel will enable them to use their resources more efficiently for all those who seek their help. The Barrel is located in the Narthex.

Martha's Home Campaign

FPC has chosen to become a Founder of Martha's Home in partnership with City Mission to create a sustainable housing option for women with children with special needs of housing, advocacy, counseling, and referral services. As a Founder, FPC has pledged to contribute $100,000 by May 2026 to help pay for the cost of renovations, outfitting, and two-year of operations at Martha's Home.

We ask you to prayerfully consider supporting this important ministry of City Mission with a gift made once or over time, to be completed by May 31, 2026. For more information on how to contribute, contact the Church Office or use the QR code.

Mobile Food Pantry

Saturday, December 7, 7:30 a.m., Great Room

FPC hosts four mobile food pantry distributions throughout the year in cooperation with Chopin Hall and other community service organizations to provide food for the hungry throughout our community. To get involved, contact Katie Abbott at katie.n.abbott@gmail.com.

WORSHIP

Sanctuary Flowers for Fall 2024

A sign-up sheet to provide worship flowers is posted on the bulletin board, and a number of dates remain available. Please select the Sunday(s) you would like to provide flowers for the Sanctuary.

OLDER ADULTS

Onward and Upward

Thursday, October 10, 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., Fellowship Hall.

Join us for a viewing of “A Case for Love,” which aims to challenge the national narrative of division. This feature-length documentary examines the question of whether or not love, specifically—unselfish—love, is the solution to the extreme societal and political divide facing the world. We’ll discuss over lunch afterward! There is a sign-up sheet outside the Church Office.

Contact: Pastor Jessie

Onward and Upward: Special Edition

Thursday, October 24, 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., Fellowship Hall.

Join us for a special edition brought to us by Findlay City Schools Superintendent Dr. Andy Hatton and Pam Harrington, treasurer, as they share facts around the financial health of the school district. Invite friends, come and learn, and of course, enjoy lunch!

Tuesdays, 10:00-11:30 a.m., Room 209

Facilitators: Leslee Kirkconnell and Elizabeth Wright

It’s not too late to join. Contact Leslee Kirkconnell.

Women of Faith

Mondays, 9:30-11:30 a.m., Parlor

This group is open to all women. The only requirement is a desire to continue your faith journey. We discuss a variety of spiritual studies.

Women of Faith will join the Sermon on the Mount book study on Tuesdays beginning October 1.

FPC Men’s Group to Start

Sunday, October 20, 11:15 a.m., Room 214

There’s been interest in having a men’s group at FPC, so we’re having an initial meeting to determine a time to gather, as well as activities and/or study all men would like to see. The group is open to all men of any age. We will meet in Room 214. If you cannot come to the meeting but are interested, please contact Curt Hugunin.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Chancel Choir

Wednesdays, 7:00-8:30 p.m., Choir Room

Lend your voice to the chorus! The Chancel Choir sings at the 10:00 a.m. worship services during the program year.

GatherRing Handbell Choir

Tuesdays, 1:30-2:30 p.m., Sanctuary

All you need to know is how to read rhythms and know your right hand from your left hand. This is a great way to work together as a team to create beautiful music for our worship services.

Contact Clint Miller to get involved!

CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILIES

Halloween Spooktacular Family Concert

Saturday, October 26, 5:00 p.m., Sanctuary

Get into the Halloween holiday spirit prior to Findlay's Trick-or-treating with the sounds of the season. We will be joined by some spooky characters and fun music to get us in the holiday mood. You can help us spread the word by posting a flyer (or two!), sharing the Facebook Event to your Facebook feed, and doing good old-fashioned word-of-mouth advertising!
