LITURGICAL ART

First Presbyterian Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together as Christians. We are currently in the season of Epiphany or Ordinary Time, which lasts from Epiphany to Ash Wednesday. The color GREEN symbolizes the renewal of living things and the promise of new life and growth for the Church. The DOSSAL CURTAIN, behind the Cross, and the paraments on the pulpit and lectern visually depict a saying of Jesus: "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living waters" -John 7:30. It also reminds us of the words "Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream" -Amos 5:24. The TREE OF LIFE, on either side of the Chancel depicts Revelation 22:2 "On either side of the river was the tree of life, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." The vision of artist Don Beck remains a formative influence on the worship life of First Presbyterian Church.

Honoring our heritage, we are a dynamic body welcoming all to Christ's spacious table, illumined to serve God with imagination and love.

Please turn off all mobile and electronic devices while in the Sanctuary.

Indicates to rise in body or spirit.*

GATHERING

We gather as a community and prepare our hearts to worship God.

At the sound of the bells, please prepare your hearts and minds for worship.

Tolling of the Bells

Prelude

Jesus Loves Me

arr. Lloyd Larson

Choral Introit

Listen, God Is Calling

Listen, listen, God is calling, through the Word inviting, offering forgiveness, comfort, and joy.

*Call to Worship

We gather to worship with expectations:

God revealed in new and astonishing ways.

God comes to us in real time.

God comes to us in dreams.

Sometimes God's presence is hard to take in—difficult to believe.

O God, we long to believe.

Help our unbelief!

God is present here.

God is working in our midst.

Then our mouths are filled with laughter,

Our tongues shout out with joy!

And let us worship God.

*Opening Hymn 12

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

See page 10

*Call to Confession

Our prayer of confession appears each week to remind us that we really do need God's presence in our life.

*Prayer of Confession

Living God, you came among us as Jesus, your Word made flesh.

We are grateful for your presence; your Love that underpins all things.

We admit we have shallow expectations of how you will act;

a box you need to stay in; a system we can understand.

We confess we want you to follow our ways.

Forgive us when the job description we have written for you is too restrictive.

Forgive our narrow vision, our childish games that miss the point, while we ignore what you call us to do. Forgive our focus on ourselves, missing the good news you bring to those on whom we think you are wasting your grace.

Set us free from our need to figure everything out before we allow you to act, and give us the vision to recognize your kingdom at work, even in ways we do not understand.

(Silent Confession)

We pray this all in the name of Christ. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Passing of the Peace

Peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
And also with you.

*Grateful Response 585

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Prayer for Illumination

First Lesson

Psalm 146

How beautiful upon the mountains
are the feet of the messenger who announces peace,
who brings good news,
who announces salvation,
who says to Zion, "Your God reigns."

⁸ Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices;
together they shout for joy,
for in plain sight they see the return of the Lord to Zion.

⁹ Break forth; shout together for joy,
you ruins of Jerusalem,
for the Lord has comforted his people;
he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰ The Lord has bared his holy arm
before the eyes of all the nations,
and all the ends of the earth shall see
the salvation of our God Praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord, O my soul!

² I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God all my life long.

- ³ Do not put your trust in princes,
in mortals, in whom there is no help.
- ⁴ When their breath departs, they return to the earth;
on that very day their plans perish.
- ⁵ Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob,
whose hope is in the Lord their God,
- ⁶ who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them;
who keeps faith forever;
- ⁷ who executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.
The Lord sets the prisoners free;
- ⁸ the Lord opens the eyes of the blind.
The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;
the Lord loves the righteous.
- ⁹ The Lord watches over the strangers;
he upholds the orphan and the widow,
but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.
- ¹⁰ The Lord will reign forever,
your God, O Zion, for all generations.
Praise the Lord!

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Scripture Anthem

JLM

Bradley Phillips

*Jesus loves me, of this I know. Jesus loves me for the Bible tells me so. Little ones to him belong,
They are weak, but his is so strong. Yes, Jesus loves me: the Bible tells me so. Jesus loves me, Alleluia. Yes, Jesus loves me. The Bible tells me so.*

Second Lesson

Luke 7:18-35

The disciples of John reported all these things to him. So John summoned two of his disciples ¹⁹ and sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come, or are we to expect someone else?” ²⁰ When the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to expect someone else?’ ” ²¹ Jesus had just then cured many people of diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits and had given sight to many who were blind. ²² And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight; the lame walk; those with a skin disease are cleansed; the deaf hear; the dead are raised; the poor have good news brought to them. ²³ And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.”

²⁴ When John’s messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵ What, then, did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who put on fine clothing and live in luxury are in royal palaces. ²⁶ What, then, did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

²⁸ "I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John, yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." ²⁹ (And all the people who heard this, including the tax collectors, acknowledged the justice of God, having been baptized with John's baptism. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and the experts in the law, not having been baptized by him, rejected God's purpose for themselves.)

³¹ "To what, then, will I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.'

³³ "For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon'; ³⁴ the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' ³⁵ Nevertheless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

With minimal revision this text brings together six of the eight four-line stanzas in an 18th-century hymn written for children and originally headed "Praise for Creation and Providence." The anonymous German tune provides a fitting sense of breadth and wonder.
